Are Li time batteries any good?

The prices of the Li Time are hard to beat, and they come with a warranty. I've watched a lot of YouTube videos and read good reviews on both the build quality and tested specs of these batteries. However, I'm hoping to hear from people who have actually owned and used these batteries on their RVs.

How long do litime batteries last?

With over 4,000 cycles at 100% depth of discharge,LiTime batteries last over 10 years. This is 4-5 times longer than a typical lead-acid battery. Faster Recharging LiTime batteries can recharge in just 1-2 hours with a compatible lithium battery charger. This rapid recharge ability means you spend less time tied to a power source.

When should you choose a litime lithium battery?

Users should choose LiTime lithium batteries when they need longer lifespan,higher cycle counts,better weight-to-power ratios,and safer,more consistent energy delivery for sensitive or high-demand applications.
